Precautions

●You must complete the payment of deposit which is necessary for applying to the auction, before using this Bidding Form. Also, turn in your balance certificate for our company to confirm. ●Fill in this form in the order of the lot number of the catalog. Also, you must fill in the maximum limitation price. (Should the maximum limitation price be left blank or indecipherable, document bidding will not be accepted) Should there be more than one bid for the same lot at the same price, the buyer whose application arrived first has priority. The amount written in the maximum limitation price column should be the amount not including commission and the consumption tax for the commission. ●Should you apply to participate in the bidding via telephone, you must fill in an amount for the same or above the low estimate. Your bid via telephone will be handled in the same manner as document bidding up until the price you have filled in and from the point where the bids rise above your bid, you will participate via telephone. Your telephone bid will not be accepted if the bidding price is left blank or your bid is below the low estimate. For whatever reason, should there be a situation where you cannot be contacted by telephone, your bid will be handled in the same manner as document bidding. ●All bids will be handled as being offered according to the bidding conditions stated in the catalog. ●Be noted that applications arriving after the deadline will be invalid. ●Copy this form should you need more space to list your bids. ●We may need to contact you directly after this form arrives, so please be sure to fill in your contact information. ●Cancellation and modifications are not allowed after the bid is closed. ●The exhibit will be delivered up to you after the payment is completed.

Note : Please be noted that we cannot answer any questions concerning the condition of the exhibit on the day of the auction.
